Champagne

2012/14 Piper-Heidsieck Brut Vintage, Champagne, France

Champagne is celebrated the world over and Piper-Heidsieck is one of the most recognizable and famous Houses of the region. As with most Houses, the majority of production is non-vintage. However, they also make a small quantity of highly prized vintage champagne in the best years that reflects the growing conditions of a single season. This wine made by chef de cave Regis Camus is a blend of 52% Pinot Noir and 48% Chardonnay sourced from approximately 18 Grand and Premier Cru sites. An excellent champagne from a highly rated vintage.

White

2018 Pewsey Vale Vineyard Riesling, Eden Valley, Australia

The Eden Valley, north of Adelaide, is home to some of Australia's greatest dry Rieslings. The original Pewsey Vale vineyard was planted at high altitude in 1847 by pioneer Joseph Gilbert, and was then replanted in 1961. Today, it is famous as a specialist vineyard dedicated to a single grape variety - Riesling. The wines are made by Louisa Rose who is widely recognized as one of Australia's most talented and experienced winemakers. This pale straw-coloured wine with green hues, is hyper-fresh and aromatic with limey, floral notes and a dry finish. An outstanding wine and a South Australian classic.

2018 Stonier Chardonnay, Mornington Peninsula, Australia

The Mornington Peninsula, about one hour's drive south of Melbourne, is a popular destination for beach holidays and wine tourism. Because the Peninsula is surrounded on three sides by water, the climate is cool, maritime and particularly well suited to growing top quality Chardonnay. The first Stonier vineyard was planted in 1978, making them one of the pioneers of the region. Today, they focus on two grape varieties only – top quality Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. This wine, made by the winemaking team of Mike Symons and Will Byron, combines bright fruit vibrancy with subtle French oak seasoning to produce an excellent example of modern Australian Chardonnay.

Red

2015 Château Magnan la Gaffelière, Saint-Émilion Grand Cru, Bordeaux, France

As soon as we tasted this wine, we knew it was something special. We were with Christian Moueix, the man who made Petrus into the world's most famous red wine. He showed us this beautifully silky, lush but fresh Saint-Émilion, fashioned by the owner of Château Angelus, the region's latest superstar. Magnan la Gaffelière is a delightful little vineyard of clay and sand on a gentle slope scooped out from the heart of the better-known property Yon Figeac, just to the west of the UNESCO-protected Romanesque town of Saint-Émilion. The enticing richness of the 2015 vintage shows in the wine, with its juicy plum and red cherry fruit deliciously laced with honey and spice.

2017 Dandelion "Lionheart of the Barossa" Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

The Barossa, around sixty kilometres north of Adelaide, is Australia's most famous wine region, with a strong international reputation for rich and powerful Shiraz wines made from ancient gnarled bush vines. The climate is warm, dry and Mediterranean, hence the richness of the wines. Dandelion is an exciting partnership between wine renaissance man Zar Brooks and his talented winemaker wife Elena. Whilst they make wines from various South Australian regions, Dandelion focusses on old vineyards that have stood the test of time combined with artisanal and traditional winemaking. This wine is a fine example of modern Barossa Shiraz – deeply coloured with ripe mocha aromatics combined with a generous but well-structured palate and soft finish.

Fortified

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for years and years. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raising warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. In the last few years, Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards
