Champagne and Wine

Champagne

2007 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its cold climate, famous limestone soils and magnificent history, is home to the world's most famous sparkling wines. Family-owned for almost a century, Taittinger is one of the greatest independent Houses and Comtes de Champagne is their highly respected and revered prestige cuvée. Comtes de Champagne is made from 100% Chardonnay from Grand Cru villages in the Côte des Blancs - Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, Mesnil-sur-Oger and Oger. This is a brilliant champagne and a textbook example of Blanc de Blancs at its best, displaying great intensity and acid line, with complex and classic toasty notes from over 10 years of aging in bottle. Spectacular!

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years. The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

White

2016 Gustave Lorentz Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, Alsace, France

Wine regions are often intensely beautiful, but there are few to compare with Alsace in northeastern France. Tiny villages that appear unchanged for a thousand years cling to slopes that delve in and out of valleys and clefts in the sombre, wooded Vosges mountains. On these sunny slopes are some of France's greatest Grand Cru vineyards. The Altenberg vineyard at Bergheim, now organically cultivated, has been Grand Cru since the 12th Century, and the Lorentz family have farmed it for 7 generations. Their Riesling is from old vines and is gloriously dry, with the quivering acid freshness of lemon pith and lime zest, all wrapped in the richness of honeycomb and the dusty golden warmth of a barley field at harvest time.

2017 Domaine Laroche Chablis 1er Cru "Montée de Tonnerre", Burgundy, France

Headquartered in L'Obédiencerie, a former monastery in the village of Chablis in which monks had made wines from the 9th century, Domaine Laroche is directly linked to the history of the region. Winemaker Grégory Viennois works in tune with nature, encouraging low yields and natural ecology to produce fruit that is true to individual vineyard origins. "Montée de Tonnerre" is a south-west oriented vineyard and is merely separated from the Grand Cru "Les Blanchots" by a narrow ravine. The nose and palate reveals notes of star anise and spice, with a subtle, salty finish.

Red

2014 Domaine Faiveley Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru "Lavaux Saint-Jacques" , Burgundy, France

This parcel is situated in the northern part of the village just before the valley. This climat's name is derived from "La Val", the term used in the Middle Ages to refer to a low point in the land, a topographic rift. Along with "Les Cazetiers" and "Clos Saint-Jacques", this climat is considered to be one of the 3 best Premiers Crus in Gevrey. The wine is deep ruby red in colour with an attractive nose offering intense aromas of small black fruits.

2007 Château Léoville-Poyferré, Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

This splendid estate covering 80 hectares of vines in the best part of the Médoc was named a Second Growth in 1855 and has retained this high status ever since. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc are harvested at their peak of ripeness to make this classic Saint-Julien wine which has been described as "quintessential claret." Carmine-ruby in colour, with fragrantly intense aromas of red and black berries, this rich combination of fruit on the palate is balanced by an elegantly firm finish. 2007 is a vintage that is recognised for its charm and is eminently suitable for red meats and perfect with cheese.

2018 Magari Gaja Ca'marcanda Bolgheri DOP

Primary flavors of blackcurrant and plum show a pleasant tangy edge that lends verve to this Bordeaux-style blend. Its tannins are like new leather, firmly guiding the fruit tones without overwhelming them. Hints of licorice and graphite emerge with air, and the dark fruit mingles with iodine notes on the long, seamless finish. This is a delicious and elegant rendering of Magari.

Fortified

Graham's 20 Year Old Tawny Port

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
