Champagne

Charles Heidsieck Brut Reserve, Champagne, France

Champagne, located in the north of France, with its cool climate and famed chalky soil, makes the most famous sparkling wines in the world. Charles Heidsieck, established in 1851 by entrepreneur Charles-Camille Heidsieck, is today one of the region's most admired Houses. Production of this multi-vintage wine is overseen by "chef de cave" Cyril Brun, and is a blend of Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. Remarkably, over 40% of the blend is made up of older reserve wines which gives Charles Heidsieck its distinctive complexity, richness and maturity. These attributes have ensured that their Brut Réserve has been the standout performer at many of the top international wine competitions in recent years.

Pikes Riesling Traditionale, Clare Valley, Australia

The Clare Valley, north of Adelaide, is home to some of Australia's greatest Rieslings. These long-living wines are dry, aromatic and delicious. Pikes, established in 1984 by brothers Neil and Andrew Pike, has proved to be a highly successful partnership of winemaking and viticultural talents. All their wines are well regarded, although they are best known for Riesling. This wine is fresh with limey, citrus notes and a dry finish. Unlike some sweeter wines made from this grape variety, it is outstanding food match. The name "Traditionale" implies a traditional Australian Riesling – a classic wine of purity and finesse.

2021 Chartron and Trebuchet Chablis, Burgundy, France

Many Burgundy merchant Houses boast of how long they have been established, sometimes reaching back hundreds of years. Chartron and Trebuchet have a different boast. They were only founded in 1984, but were leaders of a new breed of merchants whose roots were in the vineyard, not in commerce. M. Trebuchet was President of the Burgundy Growers' Association, and the company was based in Puligny-Montrachet. Consequently their prime objective was always to source and bottle the best white wines they could find. They still do this. 2021 was a very challenging year - devastating frosts and unsettled weather meant a small vintage, but one which is delightfully focused and bright. This Chablis is scented with lemon, crisp as a fresh apple and filled out with just a suggestion of beeswax

2016 Château Pey La Tour Réserve, Bordeaux

Speeding along the autoroute from Bordeaux city to Saint-Émilion, the landscape doesn't look promising. But the ground visibly rises towards the little village of Salleboeuf, and there, surrounded by ancient trees, sits Château Pey La Tour, gazing over vines planted on limestone, clay and gravel soils. These vines produce wines far more sumptuous than those of any neighbours. Pey La Tour is owned by the famous Dourthe wine company, who also owns properties in the most renowned regions of Bordeaux. This merlot based wines gives a scented juicy richness to the wine balanced by spicy oak.

2019 Dandelion "Lionheart of the Barossa" Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

The Barossa, around sixty kilometres north of Adelaide, is Australia's most famous wine region, with a strong international reputation for rich and powerful Shiraz wines made from ancient gnarled bush vines. The climate is warm, dry and Mediterranean, hence the richness of the wines. Dandelion is an exciting partnership between wine renaissance man Zar Brooks and his talented winemaker wife Elena. This wine is a fine example of modern Barossa Shiraz – deeply coloured with ripe mocha aromatics combined with a generous but well-structured palate and soft finish.

Fortified

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for year. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raisiny warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards
