Champagne and Wine

Champagne

NV Piper-Heidsieck Essentiel Extra Brut, Champagne, France

Champagne, located in the north of France, with its cool climate and chalky soil is home to the world's the most famous sparkling wines. Founded in 1785, Piper-Heidsieck is one of the oldest and best know Champagne Houses. In 2011 it was purchased by the Descours family and has been on an impressive quality trajectory ever since. Today the winemaking is overseen by young and dynamic "chef de cave" Emilien Boutillat. Essentials is a classic multi-vintage blend of Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay, almost 20% of the Essentiels blend is made up of older reserve wines which gives the wine more complexity, richness and maturity yet still remaining fresh and bright. A famous Champagne House in full renaissance mode

2022 Craggy Range 'Te Muna' Sauvignon Blanc, Martinborough, New Zealand

New Zealand is home to some of the world's most distinctive and expressive Sauvignon Blanc wines. Craggy Range was established in 1998 by entrepreneur Terry Peabody and his family in Hawkes Bay with the clear goal of becoming one of New Zealand's most famous wine producers. Craggy Range has certainly achieved this ambition and today own vineyards in both Marlborough and Hawkes Bay and have built an enviable global reputation for quality. Craggy's wines are made by talented winemaker Julian Grounds and his Martinborough Sauvignon Blanc is less herbaceous and more textured than those from the South Island yet with similar Sauvignon Blanc raciness and freshness.

2022 De Wetshof 'Lesca' Chardonnay, Robertson, South Africa

You realised you've gone from a warm climate to a cool climate in moments as you turn into the Breede River Valley north of Cape Town. The temperature tumbles, chilly winds from the Southern Ocean bend the branches of the trees and the soil is suddenly very pale. Limestone and cool sunshine. Perfect for growing Chardonnay the world over. The de Wet family were the first to make great Chardonnay in South Africa. Packed full of ripe melon and white peach fruit, flecked with fresh lemon acidity, and just softened a little with subtle oak barrel ageing

2016 SENSI VINI "Sabbiao" DOC Bolgheri

Bolgheri is generally a base blend of Cabernet (Sauvignon and Franc), Merlot, Petit Syrah and Sangiovese. Sensi Vini "Sabbiao" is produced in vineyard surrounding the castle of Bolgheri. This sophisticated and powerful wine consists of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and 10% Sangiovese. Ruby red in colour. Rich and strong to the nose, with notes of dark fruit and spices. This is a serious wines, while perfectly suited for aging, is starting to be enjoyable now.

2019 Dandelion "Lioness of McLaren" Shiraz, McLaren Vale, Australia

The McLaren Vale, about 45 minutes drive from Adelaide, is one of Australia's most famous wine region, with a strong international reputation for rich yet elegant Shiraz. The climate is warm, dry and Mediterranean, hence the richness of the wines. Dandelion is an exciting partnership between wine renaissance man Zar Brooks and his talented winemaker wife Elena. This wine is a fine example of McLaren Vale – deeply coloured with ripe mocha aromatics combined with a generous but well-structured palate and soft finish.

2019 Bodegas Lleirosso Crianza, Ribera del Duero, Spain

Nestled amidst the undulating beauty of Spain's enchanting countryside, the Ribera del Duero wine region emerges as a true gem, a canvas painted with vineyards that stretch as far as the eye can see. This picturesque land, located along the majestic Duero River, boasts a landscape of rolling hills, adorned with meticulously planted grapevines. The Bodega Lleirosso Crianza is made with 100% Tempranillo, extremely approachable and is thrillingly packed with blackberry, blackcurrant and cherry fruit and ripples with the scent of early summer flowers.

Fortified

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for year. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raisiny warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards
