Champagne and Wine

Champagne

2014 Piper-Heidsieck Brut Vintage, Champagne, France

Champagne is celebrated the world over and Piper-Heidsieck is one of the most recognizable and famous Houses of the region. As with most Houses, the majority of production is non-vintage. However, they also make a small quantity of highly prized vintage champagne in the best years that reflects the growing conditions of a single season. This wine made by chef de cave Regis Camus is a blend of 52% Pinot Noir and 48% Chardonnay sourced from approximately 18 Grand and Premier Cru sites. An excellent champagne from a highly rated vintage.

White

Pikes Riesling Traditionale, Clare Valley, Australia

The Clare Valley, north of Adelaide, is home to some of Australia's greatest Rieslings. These long-living wines are dry, aromatic and delicious. Pikes, established in 1984 by brothers Neil and Andrew Pike, has proved to be a highly successful partnership of winemaking and viticultural talents. All their wines are well regarded, although they are best known for Riesling. This wine is fresh with limey, citrus notes and a dry finish. Unlike some sweeter wines made from this grape variety, it is outstanding food match. The name "Traditionale" implies a traditional Australian Riesling – a classic wine of purity and finesse.

2021 Louis Latour Pouilly-Fuissé, Burgundy, France

Pouilly-Fuissé is the insider's go-to region for delicious, reliable white wines from Burgundy. Located south of Burgundy's more famous regions such as Chablis and the Côte d'Or, Pouilly-Fuissé enjoys more sunshine and produces wines with delightful vibrancy and generosity. In the hands of one of Burgundy's top négociants, Louis Latour, this wine is fresh and vivacious with an array of ripe fruit flavors, including pear, peaches and rock melon. The palate is balanced and fresh with a lingering finish.

Red

2020 Château Grand Moulin Macquin, Montagne-Saint-Emilion, Bordeaux

Château Grand Moulin Macquin is situated on the hilltop with eastern exposure, just a stone throw away from the village of St-Emilion. Since 1779, the Rambeaud family maintains a passion for working the land and the vine in particular. Purchased in 1948 by the grandfather of Francois Rambeaud, it has been family-owned for four generations. The wine is fine and seductive, with a very delicate hint of oak that reinforces the fruit and the terroir. Superb exposure to the sunlight allows for an excellent maturation of the grapes and seeds, providing the basis for a very natural vinification.

2020 Dandelion “Lionheart of the Barossa” Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

The Barossa, around sixty kilometres north of Adelaide, is Australia’s most famous wine region, with a strong international reputation for rich and powerful Shiraz wines made from ancient gnarled bush vines. The climate is warm, dry and Mediterranean, hence the richness of the wines. Dandelion is an exciting partnership between wine renaissance man Zar Brooks and his talented winemaker wife Elena. This wine is a fine example of modern Barossa Shiraz – deeply coloured with ripe mocha aromatics combined with a generous but well-structured palate and soft finish.

2020 Catena Appellation Paraje Altamira Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina

Argentina's greatest wines are grown at over 1000 metres height in the foothills of the Andes, where the sun shines bright but not too hot, and the nights are cold and raw. The Uco Valley in Mendoza is the most famous region. Within the Valley, Paraje Altamira is a particular paradise of ancient vineyards, many with vines 100 years old. Catena is Argentina's leading quality producer, and they have been using Altamira's grapes since the 1950s. You'll know why when you taste this fabulously scented red, packed with ripe raspberry and cherry fruit that is kept lively and mouthwatering by its youthful acidity, yet is soothed and mellowed by aging in fine oak barrels.

Fortified

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for years. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raisiny warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards
