Champagne

Charles Heidsieck Brut Reserve, Champagne, France

Champagne, located in the north of France, with its cool climate and famed chalky soil, makes the most famous sparkling wines in the world. Charles Heidsieck, established in 1851 by entrepreneur Charles-Camille Heidsieck, is today one of the region's most admired Houses. Production of this multi-vintage wine is overseen by "chef de cave" Cyril Brun, and is a blend of Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. Remarkably, over 40% of the blend is made up of older reserve wines which gives Charles Heidsieck its distinctive complexity, richness and maturity. These attributes have ensured that their Brut Réserve has been the standout performer at many of the top international wine competitions in recent years.

2022 Pikes Riesling Traditionale, Clare Valley, Australia

The Clare Valley, north of Adelaide, is home to some of Australia's greatest Rieslings. These long-living wines are dry, aromatic and delicious. Pikes, established in 1984 by brothers Neil and Andrew Pike, has proved to be a highly successful partnership of winemaking and viticultural talents. All their wines are well regarded, although they are best known for Riesling. This wine is fresh with limey, citrus notes and a dry finish. Unlike some sweeter wines made from this grape variety, it is outstanding food match. The name "Traditionale" implies a traditional Australian Riesling – a classic wine of purity and finesse.

2022 Markus Huber Gruner Veltliner, Austria

Traisental is one of Austria's smallest wine regions, nestled along the banks of the River Traisen, which flows northward into the Danube. It is also the coolest of the Danube regions, often reaching grape maturity two weeks later than its neighbors. This is due to its east-facing vines, which receive only the morning sun, while chill winds sweep up the valley from the Alps. As Europe's vineyards warm, these conditions have become ideal, and Markus Huber crafts such exceptional wines from his indigenous Grüner Veltliner grapes that he earned the title of Best Austrian Wine in 2024.

This Grüner is one of his lighter expressions, made from 45-year-old vines grown on tiny terraces carved into the rock. The 2022 vintage ripened late, allowing Huber to preserve all of Grüner Veltliner's freshness—its bright citrus acidity and leafy liveliness perfectly balanced by fruit that remains ripe yet evokes mouthwatering green peach and pear, flecked with limestone savouriness.

2022 Joseph Drouhin Macon Bussieres Les Clos, Maconnais, France

The 2022 MâconBussières "LesClos" by Joseph Drouhin comes from the rolling limestone hills of southern Burgundy's Mâconnais, a region prized for lively, fruitdriven Chardonnay. In the glass it shows a pale straw color and aromas of white peach, lemon blossom, and white flowers. The palate is fresh and focused, with crisp green apple, citrus zest, and a flinty mineral thread.

2019 Chateau Croix Mouton, France

Don't wear your best shoes when you visit Chateau Croix Mouton. The soils here are heavy, deep, sticky clays, and if they're mixed with anything else it's probably slippery silt from the River Dordogne deposited millennia ago. In most wine regions clay this thick would be avoided - but not in the fields to the right of the Dordogne River - and not when your vineyards are almost entirely planted with the Merlot grape. Merlot loves thick clay soil. The great Petrus is all Merlot, on some of the stickiest clay in France, and Croix Mouton's vineyards virtually straddle the border with Fronsac, an area famous since Roman times for deep, dense reds with a streak of iron in them. 2019 produced fragrant, elegant reds in Bordeaux, and so this Croix Mouton is scented, ripe with red plum and raspberry fruit, but not dense, and just brushed with some dusty tannin and the intriguing lick of sea salt milk chocolate.

2017 Glenelly Estate Reserve Red Blend, Stellenbosch, South Africa

You'll be surprised by the label on this wine - it shows a rather elegant, traditionally-dressed, European woman, riding on the back of a Rhinoceros and holding a generous-sized glass of wine! This is the owner's humorous way of displaying Glenelly's very special character - an African Estate established in the 1600s, now owned by a VERY elegant lady, who, until 2009, was the proprietor of the famous and supremely delicious Bordeaux Superstar Chateau Pichon-Lalande. When she sold the property - at the age of 78 - she decided she needed a new challenge - and found this fabulous property in South Africa's Stellenbosch. She planted her beloved Bordeaux grape varieties, led by Cabernet Sauvignon - with a little Syrah to spice things up - and the result is this sumptuous, ripe but appetizing red, purple plum and blackcurrant fruit made richer by scented tropical chocolate, yet kept fresh and savoury by the cool salty breath of the Southern Ocean.

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for years. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raisiny warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards.
