Champagne

2018 Piper-Heidsieck Brut Vintage, Champagne, France

Piper Heidsieck is one of the most recognizable and famous names in Champagne. Like many houses, much of their production is multi- or non-vintage; however, they also release a small quantity of vintage Champagne in the best years, reflecting the personality and growing conditions of a single season. The 2018 vintage is well-regarded, albeit an early-ripening year, and it successfully combines both quality and quantity. The wines at Piper Heidsieck are now made by the young and dynamic "chef de cave," Emilien Boutillat, who was named IWC Sparkling Winemaker of the Year in 2021. This vintage Champagne combines freshness with complexity and power—a top wine from a famous house in full renaissance mode.

White

2022 Louis Latour Macon-Lugny Les Genievres, Burgundy, France

Louis Latour is one of the most historic family-owned producers crafting wines across Burgundy, from grand crus to more accessible offerings like this Mâcon-Lugny Les Genévrières. Situated in the heart of the Mâconnais region, south of the Côte d'Or, the clay-limestone soils and warmer microclimate result in a delicious white wine with vibrant nectarine, apple, and citrus flavors. Louis Latour's style leans toward precision and lifted flavors, and this Mâcon from the excellent 2022 vintage—sourced from 30-year-old vines—is a prime example of vivid flavors balanced by subtle minerality and freshness. There is no oak influence in this wine, which accentuates its clarity and purity of flavor.

2024 Craggy Range 'Te Muna' Sauvignon Blanc, Martinborough, New Zealand

New Zealand is home to some of the world's most distinctive and expressive Sauvignon Blanc wines. Craggy Range was established in 1998 by entrepreneur Terry Peabody and his family in Hawkes Bay with the clear goal of becoming one of New Zealand's most famous wine producers. Craggy Range has certainly achieved this ambition and today own vineyards in both Marlborough and Hawkes Bay and have built an enviable global reputation for quality. Craggy's wines are made by talented winemaker Julian Grounds and his Martinborough Sauvignon Blanc is less herbaceous and more textured than those from the South Island yet with similar Sauvignon Blanc raciness and freshness.

2023 Mirabeau en Provence Coteaux d'Aix en Provence, France

Rosé wine has become so popular in France that it now threatens to overshadow red—unheard of! Leading this revolution is Provence, home to the French Riviera. While many Provence rosés promise more than they deliver—especially when a celebrity A-lister is involved—we've turned to the ancient town of Aix-en-Provence, far from the scorching Mediterranean beaches. This area is renowned for producing truly delicious wines of all colors. This Mirabeau rosé is fabulously fresh, with a scent of peaches and orange blossom. It manages to be both lively and indulgent, combining all the soft, dry pink fruit of the south with herbal notes and the gentle waft of orange grove breezes.

Red

2020 Château Pey La Tour Réserve, Bordeaux

Speeding along the autoroute from Bordeaux city to Saint-Émilion, the landscape doesn't look promising. But the ground visibly rises towards the little village of Salleboeuf, and there, surrounded by ancient trees, sits Château Pey La Tour, gazing over vines planted on limestone, clay and gravel soils. These vines produce wines far more sumptuous than those of any neighbours. Pey La Tour is owned by the famous Dourthe wine company, who also owns properties in the most renowned regions of Bordeaux. This merlot based wines gives a scented juicy richness to the wine balanced by spicy oak.

2021 Fattoria Nittardi Chianti Classico Riserva, Tuscany, Italy

Nittardi is a boutique winery in the heart of Chianti Classico that has been lovingly restored to its former glory by Peter Femfert and his wife Stefania since 1982. Although it is a young winery, its vineyards date back to the 16th century when it was once owned by the renowned artist, Michelangelo. The Sangiovese vineyard for this Riserva lies on a prime site 500 metres above sea level on schist-filled soil. Although the wine is young, it is elegant and supple with a palate filled with subtle layers of blackberries, savoury herbs and sumptuous tannins.

Fortified

Kopke 10 years

Making great tawny port is a time-consuming business. Port wine that starts life fiery and purple and aggressive must be gently softened and mellowed, the rough edges smoothed away, the fire replaced by warmth, the purple slowly lightened to russet and chestnut and amber. All this happens in old barrels placed in dark cool cellars and barely disturbed for years. Well, Kopke have had enough practice. They are the oldest Port house in existence, being founded in 1638. This lovely wine is positively rich, but blends a heady, raisiny warmth with the freshness of rosehip and red cherries. Kopke have won Trophies at the International Wine Challenge, the International Wine and Spirit Competition and the Decanter World Wine Awards.
