Champagne

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years, The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

2007 Charles Heidsieck Blanc des Millénaires, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its famous limestone soils and cold climate, makes the world's greatest and most famous sparkling wines. Charles Heidsieck was established in 1851 by Charles, a scion of the famous Heidsieck family, and today is one of the most admired and exciting Houses in Champagne. Blanc des Millénaires is their Prestige Cuvee and is made entirely from Chardonnay grapes grown on some of the greatest sites in the Cote des Blancs sub-region. At over 15 year old this wine is proof of the longevity of these wines and has developed wonderful toasty aged Chardonnay characters from extended time in bottle. In short an exceptional Blanc des Blancs Champagne of great quality and individuality.

2015 Bollinger La Grande Annee, Champagne, France

Bollinger is a remarkable Champagne House. It is the most traditional of all the great Houses, with its long-established vineyards in the region's best villages, and continues to make wines in old oak barrels from some of Burgundy's finest estates. 2015 was very dry and warm, but not blazing hot. Bollinger's old, deep-rooted Pinot Noir vines in Ay and Verzenay loved these conditions, and these vineyards provided most of the grapes for this wine. You can almost see a hint of blush in its limpid gold colour. The flavors are bold, ripe; yellow peach and golden apple, nectarine and mango, tautened by delightful mandarin orange acidity and the beginnings of hazelnut and brioche richness which will only intensify with time.

White

2023 Home Block Martinborough Vineyard Sauvignon Blanc, New Zealand

The Martinborough region in the south of New Zealand's North Island is better known for Pinot Noir than Sauvignon Blanc. Be this as it may the quality of Sauvignon Blanc from this region can be outstanding – not as herbaceous and leafy as Marlborough to the south but slightly riper, fuller and more textured in style. Martinborough Vineyard was established in 1980 and is one of NZ's most important fine wine producers. The wines are crafted by winemaker Paul Mason aided by viticulturalist, Dave Shepherd. Part of the blend is fermented in older oak barrels to give texture and complexity with the balance fermented in stainless steel tanks to capture freshness and vibrancy. A delicious but serious Sauvignon Blanc from a top producer.

2020 Meursault Premier Cru Château de Blagny, Burgundy, France

Meursault is one of the most highly regarded communes in Burgundy, synonymous with elegant, hedonistic white wines made from Chardonnay grapes. This premier cru vineyard, Château de Blagny, is exclusive to the Louis Latour family who have been wine growers in Burgundy since 1797. Meursault Château de Blagny's vineyard surrounds an ancient chateau and is planted on a hillside where the vines benefit from the stony marl top soil and Jurassic limestone subsoil. The nose on this wine is expressive and vibrant, offering layers of hazelnuts, white flowers and sweet apricots. There is wonderful textural depth on the palate – round and generous – with a flinty, stony, persistent finish. Aged for nearly a year in French oak barriques with one-third new oak, the maturation, both in the barrel and in the bottle, adds to the wine's complexity and concentration.

Please check with our cabin crew which of the above wines is available on this flight

Red

2018 Albert Bichot Les Sorbets, Morey-Saint-Denis Premier Cru, France

Albert Bichot's Morey-Saint-Denis Premier Cru "Les Sorbets" is a distinguished red wine hailing from the Côte de Nuits in Burgundy, France. Situated between Gevrey-Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny, the Morey-Saint-Denis appellation is renowned for its Pinot Noir vineyards, which harmoniously blend the robust characteristics of the former with the elegance of the latter. The "Les Sorbets" vineyard, perched at 250 meters altitude, derives its name from the rowan trees ("sorbiers") that once adorned the area, celebrated for their vibrant orange-red berries and valuable wood.

In the glass, this wine presents a deep ruby hue. The nose is expressive, offering aromas of ripe red and black fruits such as raspberry and blackcurrant, intertwined with subtle oak nuances. As the wine matures, these primary notes evolve into more complex layers, revealing hints of spices, forest undergrowth, and leather. On the palate, it is fleshy and full-bodied, boasting a well-balanced structure. The finish is long, silky, and delightfully fruity, leaving a lasting impression.

2005 Château Léoville-Poyferré, Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

This splendid estate covering 80 hectares of vines in the best part of the Médoc was named a Second Growth in 1855 and has retained this high status ever since. Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc are harvested at their peak of ripeness to make this classic Saint-Julien wine which has been described as "quintessential claret." Carmine-ruby in colour, with fragrantly intense aromas of red and black berries, this rich combination of fruit on the palate is balanced by an elegantly firm finish.

2020 Kaesler The Bogan Shiraz, Barossa Valley, Australia

Shiraz has indeed been pivotal in shaping Australia's international wine reputation, particularly in regions like the Barossa Valley. This area, known for its warm, dry climate, produces Shiraz wines that are rich, powerful, and concentrated. The Barossa Valley is home to some of the oldest Shiraz vines, contributing to the region's distinctive and celebrated wine character.

Kaesler, established in 1893, is one of the wineries that has carried on this rich tradition. Owned by Ed Peter and winemaker Reid Bosworth, the winery produces "The Bogan," a Shiraz named after Reid's nickname. The wine is made from vines planted in 1899 and 1965, which adds to its depth and complexity. It's recognized as a prime example of Barossa Shiraz, known for its richness, generosity, and smoothness.

Fortified

Graham's 20 Year Old Tawny Port

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
